• His pre-recorded material was very insightful for grasping course concepts, I just wish our course book was much more helpful for assignments as they were not very similar and had a lot of time relaying information to grasp the related concept.

25 - General comments regarding this course:

Response Rate	1/6 (16.67%)

• It is a very difficult course, especially for an introductory lesson in computer programming. I felt a more classical approach of lecture with a large course chapter book would have helped me understand the language early on in the course lesson. I relied heavily on outside sources such as Youtube for more lesson information.
