

Attachment 3

Committee Chair's Evaluation

Review For: Darryl Chamberlain

Committee: COAS Faculty Council

Review Period: AY 2022-2023

I. Type of Committee

☒ Permanent ☐ Ad hoc

☐ Department ☒ College ☐ Campus ☐ University

Committee's Purpose:

The purpose of the COAS Faculty Council is to serve as a advisory committee to the Dean regarding issues within the the various departments of the College of Arts and Sciences.

II. Participant's Contribution

Based upon such factors as adequate attendance, participation, and completion of committee assignments, this faculty member's service contribution to the committee listed above has been assessed as:

☐ Unsatisfactory ☒ Satisfactory

Comments:

Dr. Chamberlain was an active member of the Council and attended all meetings. He participated in Council business and made recommendations as appropriate on behalf of his department constituents. He engaged in committee assignments and was helpful in supporting the mission of the Council.

III. Extraordinary Contributions

Please supply any commentary that would illuminate this faculty member's extraordinary contribution to this committee.

Comments:

Dr. Chamberlain consistently used his talents to advance the mission of the Council by provided resources that would help the Council to do so. His expertise in the areas of software development meant he could develop useful online software applications to help support the Council and its committees activities.

2

Signature: Trevor Joseph Adams Date: 09/11/2023

Trevor Adams
adamst28@erau.edu